

companies based outside of the European Union. Not all countries of the world have data protection standards that are the equivalent of those in Ireland. Where we share your personal data with companies that are based outside of the European Union, we will make sure that your information is protected to an equivalent standard by, for example:

- Contracting with the receiving company with clauses approved by the European Union authorities as providing adequate protection or through the use of Binding Corporate Rules.
- Sharing the data with companies in countries considered by the European Commission as having suitably high standards of data protection legislation. A list of these countries can be found on the European Union website at ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection.
- Sharing the data with companies that have committed to adequate levels of protection through participation in schemes such as the Privacy Shield agreed between the data protection authorities of the European Union and United States.
